Ayo Oladipo
Chairman
Hotel Solutions Hospitality Nigeria Limited

Dear Ayo Oladipo,

On behalf of the Achievements Forum - 2019 organizing committee, we would like to express our deepest respect to your company, and warmest greetings to yourself.

Your company has a positive image on the national level and it is recognized internationally, it is known for outstanding performance and effectiveness, innovation, creativity, progressive quality policy, following the principles of corporate social responsibility and business ethics, and as such Hotel Solutions Hospitality Nigeria Limited has been nominated as the winner of the International Register TOP-100 in the economy and business category, with presentation of the prestigious international award: Achievements - 2019.

Award-winning companies will receive an impressive trophy made of precious metals as the ultimate sign of business excellence and impeccable reputation.

Selected and confirmed regional companies and CEOs will be honoured at the Milan Achievements Forum and gala reception in honour of winners to be held on 2 July in Westin Palace Hotel, Milan, Italy.

Receiving the Achievements award confirms your outstanding reputation and facilitates communications with potential partners and customers on a VIP level.

During the event, CEOs and seniors, business excellence leaders, top experts on quality and strategic management, and leading healthcare service providers will gather to share and learn from each other the best examples of corporate philosophy, running effective businesses, competitiveness, quality management, and discuss key factors of their achievements. I attach the event details for your attention.

Milan was selected to host the forum as one on the European commercial and financial capitals and a regional business hub. Participation in this high-level event will give you an opportunity to meet with the global business, healthcare and educational elite, and to find new partners and customers.

We kindly ask that you to contact us for the award accreditation procedure, and if you would like more information, please do not hesitate to contact a member of our team who will be glad to answer any of your questions and provide additional details.

Yours sincerely, in anticipation of your response,

Anna Williams,
